FOURTH ANNUAL BANQUET

The time has rolled around once more for another annual get-together and bull-fest. At the Lafayette game this past fall we Residents welcomed a few of you Graduates but there were not as many of you to welcome as we would have liked. It was the same case at Convention. Now comes your last opportunity to visit the Chapter this year at a time when all Brothers get together.

The Brothers who have not been in Bethlehem for more than a year will have lots of things to do to keep them busy next Saturday. Many of them will have to become acquainted all over again with Chapter conditions, for many changes have been effected since last they were with us. Furthermore, the weekend will present an opportunity for all of the older Brothers to really get to know the new blood which has become infused into the Chapter during the year. We are proud of our Freshmen and want all you Grads to meet them. Besides, there are hundreds of matters to be talked over and our discussion at the Banquet will largely affect future policies.

Saturday will also be an ideal day for a visit from the standpoint of the college. We meet Lafayette's nine on Taylor Field in the last game of the series. Lehigh's lacrosse team will play Johns Hopkins earlier in the afternoon, the result of which contest will determine the championship for the southern division. Then, for the racquet enthusiasts, a tennis match with Dartmouth is scheduled.

With such an array of attractions what further inducement can we offer to have you here? The distance between you and Bethlehem is insignificant compared with the importance of the occasion. The only Brothers who are excusable on this account are Slim Rau and George Weber, who write that "it is rather hard walking from Texas."

Now men, how about it? Will you be there? At the last Banquet there were just seven Graduates who attended. Are you going to let that happen again? Give us your personal answer upon your arrival Saturday. And if you haven't a Tux or a Soup and Fish handy—come anyway. Your presence is of more importance than the suit.

SUB FRESHMAN DAY.

For the past few years Phi Mu has planned to have a good Sub Freshman Day, but for some reason or other it has always fallen through. This year, however, proved an exception.

With wonderful weather and a good crowd of men, May 14th became a big day for Phi Mu. Some of the men arrived Friday night and by Saturday noon their number had increased to seven.

A lacrosse game with Rutgers, which resulted in a victory for Lehigh, 11 to 0, and a hard-fought battle against Penn State's winning nine proved ample amusement for our guests in the afternoon.

After supper the men broke up into small groups and accompanied by various Brothers "stepped out" for the evening. A theatre party and several dances kept the men busy until twelve o'clock, when all returned to the House for a Smoker. Many of the grads dropped in, which helped greatly in making the day a success.

Sunday afternoon saw the departure of our guests, all of whom agreed they had enjoyed their visit to Lehigh and Phi Mu.

A great deal of credit is due Brother Conroy and his able assistant, Brother Todd, of the Sub Freshman Committee, for the most successful of these days Phi Mu has ever had.

Among the men who were with us over the week end were:—

Mr. Richards, of Scranton, Pa.
Mr. Wardell, of East Orange, N. J.
Mr. Walker, of Bethlehem, Pa.
Mr. Fuller, of Trenton, N. J.
Mr. Reese, of Freehold, N. J.
Mr. Laird, of Freehold, N. J.
Mr. Leizear, of Baltimore, Md.

WILL YOU BE THERE?

OUR OWN CABINET

(The difficulties which Mr. Harding had to encounter in choosing the members of his advisory Cabinet recently have prompted us to draw up this list of our favorites for these positions when 1924 rolls around.)

Secretary of State—Charles Samuel Schubert.

Our candidate is supremely well-fitted for the duties which this office involves. During his several years of residence in Bethlehem, Mr. Schubert made a detailed study of the foreign element of the town. He made it a point to study the habits, customs and tendencies of these people and almost every Saturday night our hero could be seen doing welfare work in the slums. His experience in this line of work brought him in contact with people of Hungarian, Polish, Greek, Dutch and Irish extraction; hence, his attitude on the questions of Polish and Irish independence should be worthy of serious attention. Mr. Schubert's past work has made him pre-eminently prepared to handle the foreign relations of our country in a sane and understanding manner. We endorse him as our choice for the office of Secretary of State.

Secretary of War—Gilbert Cunkle Howard.

This choice is a wise one. Colonel Howard carried the entire responsibilities of the recent world war upon his own capable shoulders. And it was due to his work that we were able to emerge victorious, with the able assistance, of course, of one John Pershing, his staff advisor. Colonel Howard won the war. For this reason alone the future President is duty bound to pick him for the Cabinet as an expression of the gratitude of the American people.

Secretary of the Navy—Clifford Leroy Price Kniley.

Our endorsement of this gentleman as a future naval advisor is prompted by a little private experience our man went through early one morning. It was distinctly a naval event. Further we cannot commit ourselves. But the way in which he bore himself through the ordeal makes us feel that he is qualified for said office.

Secretary of the Treasury—Julian Washington Gardy.

Mr. Gardy is noted for his ability to cope with problems involving financial principles. He is the Commissary Department of the Chapter and a recent incident served to illustrate his talent in this direction. The Brothers were clamoring to have eggs included in the breakfast menu and it was up to our hero to solve the problem of serving eggs without endangering the finances of the department. He decided upon the wisest course and now each Brother desiring an egg must first consult the commissary, produce one jit and receive a "check for 1 egg" in return. This he must turn over to the waitress before he can become the possessor of the coveted ellipsoid. How is that for system? For this reason we recommend him for the Treasury.

Secretary of the Interior—Charles Henry Israel.

Anyone who has ever had the opportunity of dining with our endorsee knows how well qualified he is to run this department. he has first hand information in all matters pertaining to the Interior and it is even rumored that he has enlisted the energetic aid of an assistant. For if he doesn't eat in a day or two what will his poor little tape-worm do?

Secretary of Commerce—Leon Appel Fritchman.

Mr. Fritchman always appears at the house wearing a new suit, new shoes and a happy smile. He also smokes cigars regularly. His answer to the query "How's business?" proves that he is quite capable of handling Uncle Sam's commercial relations.

Postmaster-General—John Archibald Thomas.

Thomas holds the record for receiving and sending mail. A day without the appearance of one pink and one blue envelope via the postman is a gloomy one for "Jack."

Attorney-General—William Gregory Barthold.

W. Gregory is the only Phi Mute who has aspirations for the legal profession, so naturally we endorse him.

Secretary of Agriculture—()

We don't care much who gets this office. We thought at first to recommend H. Wood Shockley but his failure to produce a crop after repeated applications of fertilizer in the form of hair tonic prompted us to withdraw him.

THOSE THAT LEAVE US

Again the time has come for the passing of some of our good Brothers from our family circle. And again these Brothers total three. Brothers Al Barthold, Pat Flanagan and Dick Schubert are those that have reached the higher mark and are reaching out for the "sheepskin." After four years of hard work, they are soon to be gone, and we regret that the four years have passed so soon. Brother Schubert finished in February and left, but the other two Brothers are now putting in their last few entries to close their college records. We only hope that their future friends in the world will enjoy their company and excellent spirit as much as we have.

ALLEN JENNINGS BARTHOLD, B. A., "Al" Bethlehem, Pa.

About four years ago, a meek little boy sneaked away from his home in North Bethlehem, stole across the bridge and sauntered up the hill with the air of a "Charlie" Schwab. That little boy was no other than Al Barthold. He selected the B. A. course with the idea of obtaining some knowledge and started right in to work. He kept at his studies for four years and is now ready to graduate.

Al didn't spend all of his time in studying, however, but diverged long enough to become Assistant Editor-in-Chief of the Epitome and turn to athletics to earn the position of Manager of Track. Due to his work on the Epitome board, he was made a charter member of Pi Delta Epsilon, the honorary journalistic fraternity.

College Activities:—Assistant Editor-in-Chief of the EPITOME (3); Manager of Track (4); Assistant Manager of Track (3); Y. M. C. A. Committee (3); Pi Delta Epsilon (3, 4); President of Deutscher Verein (4); Sophomore Cotillion (2); Arts and Science Club (1, 2, 3, 4); English Price Prize (1).

Fraternity Activities:—'Is (3, 4); 'G (2); Phi (1).

FRANCIS PATRICK FLANAGAN, E. M., "Pat" "Flanamire" Roanoke, Va.

Carrying with him the distinction of being the only man in the chapter to be married while attending college, Francis Patrick Flanagan will leave us this June with a diploma. Pat came to us in the fall of '16 when we were only Theta Delta Psi and so was one of the first Lehigh Alpha Chi Rho men. Pat's life here at Lehigh has been very varied and has included many events. At the end of his Sophomore year, he left us, and returned a year later with a wife. Since then, of course, he has had to devote part of his time to her and we have not seen as much of him as we would like to have. However, Pat has been a big pillar for the Resident Chapter and we feel that he will be as big a one in the Graduate Chapter.

College Activities:—Assistant Manager of Basket Ball (3); Associate Manager of Basket Ball (4); Mining Society (1, 2, 3, 4); Secretary of Mining Society (4).

Fraternity Activities:—'I (4); 'Is (2, 3); Chapter Correspondent (2); Alternate to Interfraternity Council (3); Alternate to National Convention (3); Member of Fraternity Basket Ball team (3, 4).

CHARLES SAMUEL SCHUBERT, E. M., "Dick" "Sam"

Roanoke, Va.

After spending endless years with the Resident Chapter, Dick Schubert left us last February with a "dip" almost in his possession. Since that time he has probably completed his requirements and now has proof that he is a Lehigh graduate.

Dicky entered with the class of '19, but he spent some time in the war and so couldn't graduate with his class. Dick was very active around the college and besides being out for sports, he was elected to several honorary clubs. Sword and Crescent and Cyanide were two of the clubs in his last year. Dicky was also a very prominent member of the varsity lacrosse team for two years. He played second attack and was a very dangerous shooter. Dick has only been gone for a short time, but it seems like ages and it certainly would be good to see him again.

College Activities:—Varsity Lacrosse team (3, 4); Wrestling squad (3); Cyanide (4); Sword and Crescent (4); Interfraternity Council (4); Mining Society (1, 2, 3, 4); President of Mining Society (3); Secretary of Class of '19 (3) Arcadia.

Fraternity Activities:—'E (4); 'U (3); House Chief (3); Arcadia Representative (3); Interfraternity Council Representative (4); Delegate to National Convention (3); Member of Fraternity Basket Ball team (3).

GRADS AND NEAR-GRADS

Phil Israel is tearing through his sales course at the Worthington Pump Plant, Harrison, N. J., and expects to finish in September. From thence he will be transferred to a branch office of the Corporation.

Jake Reitzel, according to Dame Rumor, has started in business for himself. Congratulations and best wishes, Jake.

Walt Woolley is patiently waiting for next Saturday. Meanwhile, he is busying himself with "work around the house." We hear that he has already painted the house and is now starting to grade the lawn. Squirt, accompanied by Mrs. Woolley, Miss Louise Laird and two prospective Lehigh men, motored in from Asbury for Sub-Freshman Day. That's the old pep, Walt.

The whereabouts of Norm Vines still remains a mystery. For a time we used to hear from him weekly from various parts of the world. The last we heard of him, he was in San Diego, California. But where is our wandering boy now?

Ike Bush informed us yesterday that he is busy doing nothing. To-day he insists that he is working but that he isn't being paid for it. Draw your own conclusions.

Buck Snavelly is marking time in anticipation of his return to Lehigh next fall. Buck is just crazy to get back. And why shouldn't he be? Buck belongs to Lehigh and he belongs to Phi Mu. It ain't no other!

Muggsy Magee will go through the L., H., and O. ceremony on June Something or Other and J. Morgan—our own Schaefer,—is rejoicing over his newly-begotten heiress.

Brother Fritchman is still selling construction machinery for Edelen and Company, of Philadelphia, Pa. If such a thing can be imagined, he even covered Doylestown recently in search of customers. On that trip he encountered Al Gardy, and had lunch with him.

Brother Al Gardy is now full fledged advertising manager of the Doylestown Daily Democrat, which ran a circulation campaign in opposition to the Philadelphia Inquirer with two Fords as the first two prizes. The Democrat also publishes a weekly Pictorial Supplement which competes with the Rotogravure section of the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

As for the rest of the Grads,—well, we'll find out all about them this week end.

FRATERNITY SPORTS

Phi Mu didn't fare so very well in the Inter-fraternity Sports this year, and at present have been eliminated from three of them. Brother Gardy was instrumental in adding two more sports to the list, thus totaling four, and although the tournaments have not been run off according to schedule, the idea has been very successful.

Phi Mu went out on the first crack in bowling, when she bowed to Psi Upsilon in straight games. She fared a little better in the basket ball, being defeated by Pi Lambda Phi, after downing Phi Sigma Kappa. The biggest disappointment came in the pool tournament when Sigma Chi took our first match. Tennis still remains to be played, but it has not opened yet, and so we are safe for a time. Our first opponent is Phi Delta Theta and we are hoping for a victory.

BOWLING

We tasted defeat in the first encounter of bowling when Captain Jim Conroy's rollers fell in straight games by the scores of 630-441 and 602-529. There were two main causes for the defeat. The first big one was the lack of practice, while the other important one was the superiority of the Psi U team. Our opponents bowled well for the first contest and deserved the victory.

Jim Conroy and Doc Fretz were our only veterans, but Cliff Kniley, Rod Hauser, and Snorkey Thomas, new men this year, lent a helping hand. Jim and Cliff bowled our highest marks with 150 apiece in the second game. The score:

Psi Upsilon		Alpha Chi Rho
Poor	170 153	Conroy, Capt	129 150
Forstall, Capt.	148 132	Fretz	116 147
Gott	167 159	Hauser	95 (x)
Bowman	145 158	Thomas	(x) 82
		Kniley	101 150
Totals	630 602	Totals	441 529

BASKET BALL

We met Phi Sigma Kappa in the first basket ball game and defeated them in a good game by the score of 13-6. We got off to a good start on goals by Wash Gardy and Bill Huggins and were leading at half time by an 8-3 score. Wash and Bill came through with double-deckers again in the second half while Wash was also scoring from the foul mark, and we came out the winner with ease.

Don't forget that we are trying to get a 100% subscription to the "Garnet and White." If you haven't paid yours, Brother A. H. Callahan is waiting in Brooklyn for it.

BIRTH

A daughter, Marian Arline, to Brother and Mrs. J. Morgan Shaeffer, '21, in Allentown, Pa., on April 3, 1921.

MARRIAGE

Brother Robert W. Wieseman, '16, to Miss Rae A. Lee, of Schenectady, N. Y.

BEST WISHES!

The Brothers of Phi Mu would like to take this opportunity to extend their best wishes to Brother and Mrs. J. Morgan Shaeffer upon the birth of their daughter, Marian Arline. The Brothers are getting used to being "uncles" and it's nice to have a niece for a change.

News for the "Garnet and White" and "Musings" should be sent by the graduate chapter to Brother J. A. Gardy.

For "Musings," the items should reach him by January 15, May 1, and August 1; for the "Garnet and White," it should reach him by February 10, August 10, October 10, and December 10. We may not get time to write to you for the news, so when you know any, just drop a line about it—a post card will do if you can't write.
